arena geisingen international April 17th – April 19th, 2020

Scoring for European-Cup Inline and Swiss Championship Track

All races are on the 200m track in the arena geisingen. The modern shape of the track together with the VESMACO coating will make this a high-class race.

Competitions

arena geisingen international

Inline speed-skating, all-over scoring over all distances

European-Cup Inline

Inline speed-skating, all-over scoring over all distances
(EC-Distances short and long)

Swiss Championship Track

Inline speed-skating, all-over event scoring

All-over scoring

Order on the finish equals points. In case of parity after the last race, the placement will be made by the result of the longest race. If a skater does not compete in one race, the athlete gets the points of the last place plus one additional point. Winners will be determined for each category.

Individual Competition Cadets, Youth, Junior & Senior

500m Sprint: The qualifications, semi-finals, quarterfinals and finals, all races in groups of up to 6 skaters (Rulebook of FIRS)

Points Race: According to official CIC regulations

Elimination Race: According to official CIC regulations

Dobbin Sprint: The Dobbin Sprint is a race developed by the professional skater Kalon Dobbin from New Zealand. The Dobbin sprint is a 200m (one lap) race and begins with a flying start. After the qualification, the racers with the 5 best times (best 10 for senior men and women) qualify for the final.

Please note: According to the number of participants the distances of the long race competitions could be modified.

Liability

The arena geisingen is not responsible or liable for property or financial losses. Excluded from this disclaimer is the liability for gross negligence and wilful misconduct and for personal injury (damage to life, limb or health of a person). The above limitations and revisions also extend to the personal liability of employees, representatives, agents and third parties which are related to organising the event.

Each participant needs to have a sufficient health insurance that is also valid abroad.

Data Protection

Data protection declaration for the realisation of competitions

By registering for this competition, personal data is collected or made available from other sources. These data are used exclusively for the registration and the realisation of the competition and are not passed on to uninvolved third parties; above all not for advertising purposes.

This competition is public and therefore we will publish the relevant data (first name, surname, location, club, year of birth, competition class) as well as the results obtained and pass them on to interested press media.

In accordance with Art. 6 Para. 1 of the DS-GVO, we inform those affected of this in advance.

By registering for this competition, the athlete declares his/her consent to the collection, processing, storage and use of personal data as well as the publication of registration, starter and result lists.

The result lists will be stored during the competition year for the sake of traceability and are available for download on the Internet. The athlete may object to this storage in writing (by email to: datenschutz@arena-geisingen.de). In this case the personal data will be blacked out or made unrecognisable and the original data will only be published for a period of 2 months.

The indication of an e-mail address serves only for the dispatch of the registration confirmation, for possible inquiries and for the information of the participants.

In the case of underage participants, their parents or legal guardians agree to the above rules by signing the registration form.

Note on image rights: The right to one's own image states that each person may in principle determine for himself whether and in what context pictures or films are published by him at all (§ 22-24, Gesetz betreffend das Urheberrecht an Werken der bildenden Künste und der Fotografie, KunstUrhG). The publication of a picture of a person therefore requires his or her consent.

By registering for this competition, you confirm your voluntary participation in a public event. Furthermore, you declare your consent that the organisers and organisers of the event may publish images of you and your person in electronic and print media, especially on the homepage of the association or association, as well as in the association or association magazines, without restriction and for an unlimited period of time.

With reference to §

23 Para. 1 No. 3 KunstUrhG, the special right applies that the publication of pictures with persons appearing as a crowd at a meeting or event is also possible without consent.

Explicit reference is made to a subsequent right of revocation. Should you request that the picture be deleted after publication, the organiser and the organiser will comply with this request.

In the case of underage participants, their parents or legal guardians agree to the above rules by signing the registration form.
